

Kansas Society of Radiologic Technologists

Annual Convention Code of Conduct

When registering to attend the KSRT Conference, attendees agree to the following expectations:

- A. Behave in a respectful and professional demeanor at all times.

- B. Once in a meeting/lecture, stay for the entire extent of the meeting.

- C. Cellular phones and other electronic devices must be switched to silent or vibrate during the presentation.

- D. NO consumption of alcoholic beverages will occur during the meeting/lecture.

- E. The presenter of the lecture will have the utmost respect at all times. Please do not talk to those around you during the lecture. Give your attention to the lecture process even if you feel the information is not informative or the presenter's style is not optimal.

- F. If you are asked to leave a meeting for any reason, you will respect the decision without dissent and leave. No credit for attendance at that meeting will be given.
